Local School Districts/Charter Schools : When members of the State Board of Education and local boards of education apply to become candidates for election, they do so because they are interested in education. By requiring those members to be elected in partisan elections, they may be elected solely on their party of choice rather than the desire to enhance education. In addition, the requirement of local municipalities to select a successor for an interim vacancy instead of the local board, may decrease local control of the school district.
Businesses and Associations :

Individuals :

Narrative Description of Bill : This bill requires members of the State Board of Education and local boards of education to be elected in partisan elections. It amends the procedures for filling midterm vacancies of members of the State Board of Education and local boards of education and repeals the State Board of Education nominating and recruiting committee.
